ChipTheMagical Performance Agreement

1. General:

- By signing this agreement, the Event Organizer, agrees to services provided by Rich Russell "Magic Chip": .

2. Payments:

• All balances due must paid in full the day of performance.

- A $100 non-refundable initial deposit is required.
- Please make sure all of the information be is correct, then mail or email the signed agreement plus a $100 initial deposit to secure the date to: Rich Russell, 18330 SE 145th St, Renton, WA 98059.
- This payment of $100 is your initial deposit to reserve this specific date and time and to turn down all other engagements that conflict.
- If the payment is by check, please make a check for $100 payable to: Rich Russell.
- Due to high demand, shows will be booked on a first-come first-served basis. You will have 7 days to send the contract and initial deposit back otherwise the performer is under no obligation to reserve the spot for you.

3. Day of the Event:

- Please put the payment (cash preferably) inside of an envelope.
- Due to the busy performance schedule, all performances must begin on time. Thank you!
- Even though the performer is very flexible with his time, due to high demand, multiple shows may be booked on the same day- therefore it is critical that the start time is adhered to when other show is booked after yours.
- If the event is running behind the schedule, you'll have the following options:
 - a) The performer can finish at the time the original show was set to finish for the full fee ($) even though your performance started later; or
 - b) You will pay a $ 50 per 15 minute held over fee.
- The Event Organizer will provide performer with secure location for show supplies and valuables.
- The Event Organizer will provide performer with a water bottle and a trash bag to be used for disposal after the show.
- Also the Event Organizer will provide performer with parking in a garage if there is no easy parking available nearby or only 1-hour meters available.
- For Shows in Seattle: the performer will always try to look for street parking. However, if after 20 minutes the performer can't find parking, he will go to the nearest garage.

4. Cancellation Policy:

- Should the engagement for which the contract is made be canceled by the event organizer more than one month prior to the engagement, without cause from an act of god, the event organizer shall forfeit 50% of the booking fee ($50).
- However, if the event organizer decides to reschedule the engagement, any deposits made can be applied to rescheduled performance within three months after the original event date (). Please note: that any rescheduled event is subject to availability.
- If event organizer cancels the engagement for any reason whatsoever within two weeks of the performance, the remaining balance must be paid in full and payable to Rich Russell within two weeks of cancellation.
- If for any reason the performer has to cancel the event, another competent performer will be found or the deposit will be repaid in full.
- Due to extreme weather conditions, such as snowstorm or flooding, we will do our best to reschedule your show without extra charge. However if this results in a cancelation of the show on part of the event organizer, the event organizer will receive any deposit made (if any) back as a voucher to be used towards another mutually agreed date/event within the next 3 months after the original event date ().

5. Others:

- The performer always arrive earlier between 20-60 min before the event begins to set up with no problems.
- However, the performer will not be held responsible for late start of performance due to weather, unforeseen traffic delays or circumstances beyond our control.
- If this is the case the performer will call the Event Organizer to keep them inform of any inconvenience on the road and the new estimated time of arrival.

All checks should be made payable to Rich Russell
